

ACADEMIC SUSPENSION

The Principal or his/her designee may remove a student from a scheduled class in case of serious class disruption. These students will be assigned to in-house suspension for a designated period of days. In these instances, parent/guardian notification will be given. Any subsequent offense may result in permanent removal from the class with loss of academic credit.